Piazza Romana, located at 339 Chem. du Bord-du-Lac-Lakeshore in Pointe-Claire, QC, offers a menu that combines the best of Italian and Mediterranean cuisine, with each dish crafted to bring out the authentic flavors of the region. From tender veal to juicy chicken, and succulent lamb, there's something for everyone at this cozy yet upscale eatery.

The veal options at Piazza Romana are a standout, offering dishes like Veal Picatta, where the veal is expertly cooked and paired with a tangy lemon-caper sauce. If you're in the mood for something classic, the Veal Parmesan is a perfect choice-breaded veal cutlets are fried to golden perfection, topped with marinara sauce and melted mozzarella, creating a satisfying, comfort-food experience. For a bit of variety, try the Veal Milanese or the Veal Scallopini, both of which showcase tender cuts of veal served with rich sauces that enhance the natural flavors. If you're looking for something with a deeper, more robust flavor, the Veal Marsala, simmered in a rich wine sauce with mushrooms, will not disappoint.

The chicken dishes at Piazza Romana also deserve a mention. For something light and flavorful, the Grilled Chicken offers a simple yet delicious option. It's perfectly grilled, ensuring each bite is juicy and full of flavor. If you're craving a dish with a bit more substance, Chicken Parmesan is a comforting choice, where breaded chicken cutlets are smothered in marinara and cheese. Another great option is the Chicken Milanese, a crispy, golden, breaded chicken cutlet served with a zesty salad. And for those who love citrusy zest, Lemon Chicken offers a refreshing and tangy twist on a classic dish.

Piazza Romana's lamb offerings are another highlight. The Grilled Lamb Chops are tender, flavorful, and perfectly seasoned, making them a must-try for any lamb lover. The rich, savory flavors of the lamb make for a truly indulgent experience.

For appetizers, Starters at Piazza Romana are sure to excite your taste buds. Fried Calamari is a favorite, served crispy on the outside while remaining tender on the inside. If you're in the mood for something vegetable-based, the Fried Zucchini and Eggplant Parmesan are light yet flavorful, offering a nice contrast to the heartier dishes. A signature item, Maria's Meatballs, is a must-try for any meat lover; they're hearty and flavorful, just like you'd expect from a family recipe passed down through generations. Pair them with the Grilled Italian Sausage, which is seasoned to perfection, and you'll have a combination that's impossible to resist.

When it comes to soups and salads, Piazza Romana offers a variety of comforting options. The Stracciatella, a traditional Italian egg drop soup, is light yet full of flavor. Tortellini En Brodo, with its rich broth and delicate pasta, is another great option for those looking for a hearty, yet not too heavy, start to their meal. If you're in the mood for something more robust, the Minestrone is a vegetable-packed soup that's both hearty and satisfying. The Caesar Salad is a classic, with crisp lettuce, creamy dressing, and crunchy croutons, making it a perfect side to any main course. For something a little different, the Spinach Salad provides a refreshing contrast with its light dressing and tender spinach leaves, perfect for balancing out the richer dishes.

Piazza Romana's menu truly offers something for everyone, whether you're craving veal, chicken, lamb, or simply a comforting soup or salad to start your meal. Every dish is thoughtfully prepared, bringing out the best flavors of Italy, and each bite will transport you straight to the heart of Mediterranean cuisine. The cozy ambiance of the restaurant adds to the experience, making it the perfect spot for a casual meal with friends or a romantic dinner for two.
