Stepping into Taroko Asian Tapas Bar in Grants Pass is like embarking on a culinary journey across Asia. Their menu is a vibrant tapestry of flavors, offering a diverse selection of dishes that cater to various palates.

Small Bites: The adventure begins with the Organic Spicy Garlic Edamame, where tender soybeans are wok-tossed in sesame oil, chili, and garlic, delivering a spicy kick. The Salt & Pepper Calamari stands out with its crispy texture, enhanced by ginger, garlic, bell peppers, and scallions. For those seeking comfort, the Szechuan Chili Oil Wontons offer a delightful heat, while the Taiwanese Popcorn Chicken provides a crispy, savory bite.

Bowls and Mains: The Korean Kalbi Bowl is a hearty choice, featuring marinated short ribs atop rice, accompanied by kimchi and cucumber salad. The Pork Belly Bowl is equally enticing, with fried pork belly wok-tossed with garlic, green onions, and Thai chilis. Seafood enthusiasts will appreciate the Chilean Sea Bass, seared with soy and garlic, served over baby bok choy.

Noodles and Soups: Noodle lovers can indulge in the Garlic Shrimp Noodle, where egg noodles are tossed with cabbage, parmesan, lemon juice, and garlic butter, topped with prawns. The Pork Ramen Noodle Soup offers a rich miso broth with pork slices, egg, and vegetables, providing a comforting bowl.

Vegetarian Options: Vegetarians aren't left out, with dishes like the Teriyaki Tofu, featuring fried tofu in teriyaki sauce, and the Garlic Baby Bok Choy, wok-fried with garlic in a savory sauce.

Taroko Asian Tapas Bar masterfully blends traditional Asian flavors with modern twists, creating a menu that's both exciting and satisfying. Whether you're in the mood for small bites or hearty mains, there's something here to delight every diner.
